Eagles Eye Crown

BY JOHN SHIELDS

Will they cop the crown? That was the big question in Canyon this week as Eagle cagers headed for playoff Friday with the Floydada Whirlwinds for District 2-AA honors.

The excitement began last Friday when a screaming crowd watched the Whirlwinds notch a 65-63 win over Canyon at Floydada, sending the clubs into a playoff for the district championship.

Canyon could have won the title outright with a victory. But coach Allen Simpson's cagers just couldn't manage to keep pace with the determined, fast-breaking Whirlwinds in the first half.

The co-champs finished league play with identical 6-2 marks, and Canyon produced one of its finest seasons by rolling up a 24-9 record.

The playoff will be held in Tulia Friday at 8 p.m. to decide which team will represent the district in state playoff action.

The winner will take on the district 1-AA champ, Stinnett, in bi-district play, either Monday or Tuesday of next week. Winner will advance to the regional tournament at Lubbock the following Friday and Saturday.

In the first meeting of Canyon and Floydada earlier in the season the Eagles took a squeaker, 63-62. They held a 20-point lead, but had to fight off a final Whirlwind rally to preserve the win.

So the contest Friday should be a real humdinger. Admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

If Canyon can down the Whirlwinds it will mark the second straight year that Simpson has tutored his club into the state playoffs. Last season the Eagles rolled through district play with an unblemished record and made their way to the state finals before losing to Buna, 47-41.

Canyon was ahead only twice in the battle Friday, both times early in the game. The score was tied on four occasions.

Don Breitling chipped in a delayed layup—his specialty—after 15 seconds had elapsed in the initial period to give Canyon its first lead, 2-0. Keith Teague knotted the count a minute later.

Bobby Evans dropped in a free toss at 5:46 to give Canyon its final lead.

Then the Whirlwinds started to live up to their name. Canyon was held scoreless for almost three minutes while Floydada continued its assault on the nets.

Floydada had extended its lead to six points, 9-3, before Eddie Poole counted for Canyon on a free throw.

The Whirlwinds had the Eagles down by seven points going into the second stanza, 17-10.

At 6:31 in the second quarter Floydada took an 11 point lead, 23-12, on a short jump shot by Butch Gilliland. The margin stayed at ten points throughout most of the period.

Floydada held its largest margin of the contest at 3:15, 32-18. At halftime Canyon trailed, 34-24.

During the third quarter an inspired band of Eagles gave the Whirlwinds some uncomfortable moments with their determination.

Canyon trimmed Floydada's lead to five points and held it

City Budget Proposes Longevity Pay Boosts

A longevity pay plan for city employees, a new city water well, additional firefighting equipment, and a continuing program of street, water and sewer developments are highlights of the 1964-65 Canyon budget which City Manager Dewey Bryant will present at the next regular meeting of the city commission.

The proposed budget totals $414,500—about 8.5 per cent, or $32,500 more than the current budget, including debt service.

No increase in the current tax rate is proposed.

Bryant said several items in the new budget—notably the $10,000 appropriation for a water well and the $7,500 first installment on the cost of a new pumper truck for the fire department—may be subject to further discussion and possible amendment by the commission. But he indicated the budget as it now stands is a reasonable reflection of costs of city government and services in the coming year.

The budget as drawn this week does not reflect costs of the longevity pay plan for city employees which would add $2,280 to the total salary item.

As outlined by Bryant, the proposed plan calls for a pay increase of $2 per month per year of service, beginning at the end of five years and continuing to a limit of 15 years. Employees with minimum eligibility would thus receive a pay increase of $10 per month, effective in the new budget year, and employees with additional service would receive proportionately more. Salary adjustments to conform to increasing service status would be made at the beginning of each budget year, but not during the year.

Bryant said the plan if adopted will immediately affect 11 persons, or approximately a third of the city's work force.

"The real advantage of the program is that you reward people who are permanent employees, and at the same time you encourage people to become permanent employees," Bryant said.

The appropriation for a new city water well was made with a view to putting facilities in better shape to meet heavy summer demands.

Capacity of the present system is about four million gallons (See CITY, Page 7)

WT Musical Stage Set For 'Fair Lady'

"My Fair Lady," the Lerner & Lowe classic that has set new on-and-off Broadway records for excellence and profit, will be the major production of the West Texas State University Fine Arts Department this year.

Decision to stage the tuneful musical was made recently when it was learned that script and score have just been released for amateur use, according to William A. Moore, director of the WT drama section.

The 8-day run in the Branding Iron Theater here has been scheduled for May 6-9, inclusive, and again for May 13-16, inclusive. Curtain time will be 8:15 p.m., as usual.

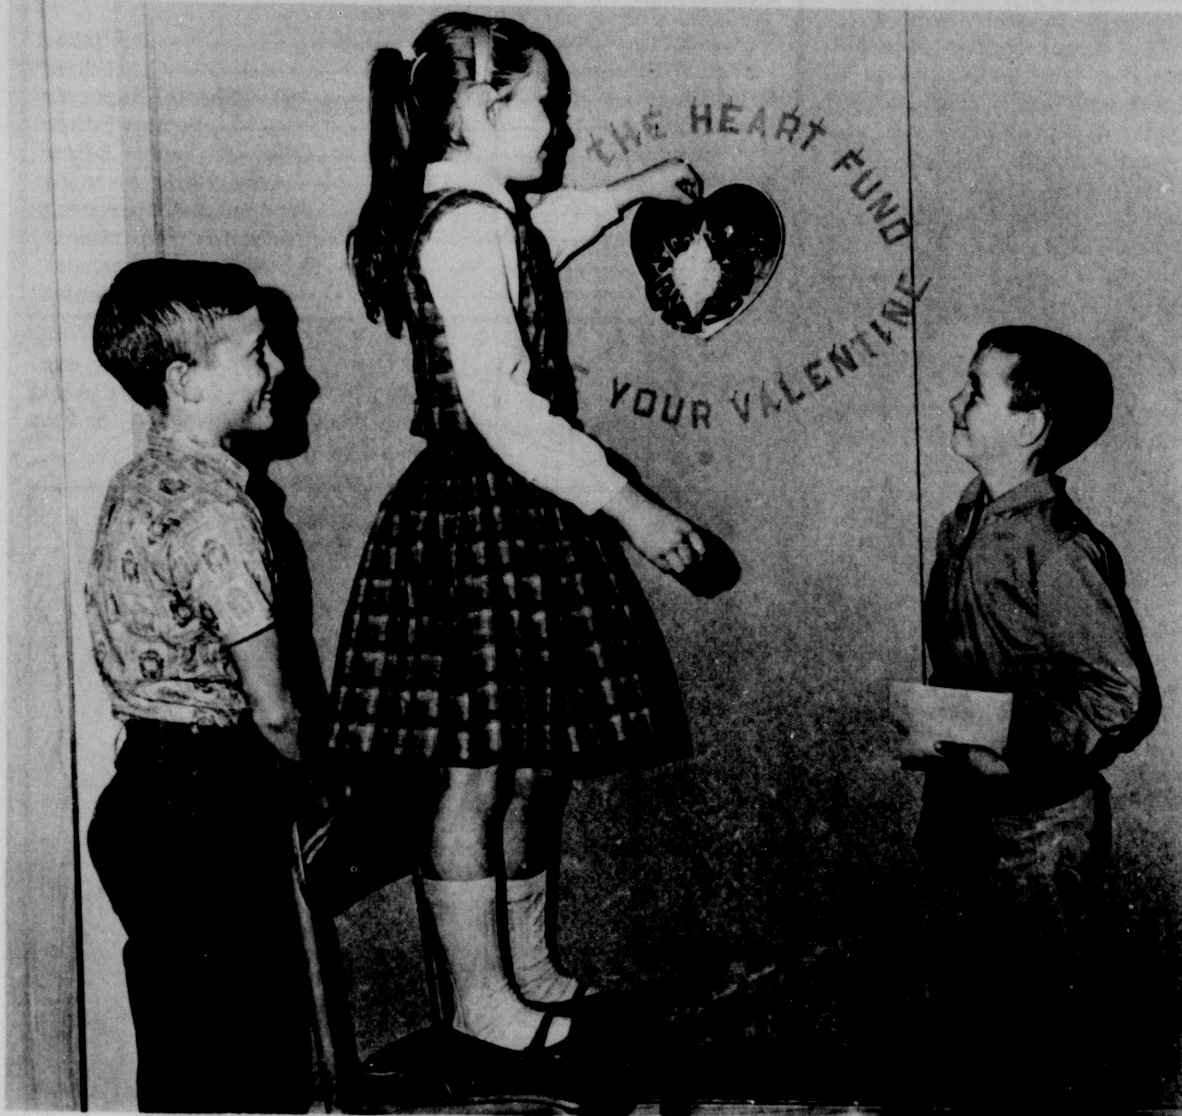

The annual major production of the WT Fine Arts Department has been a sellout for the past several years, and early reservations for "My Fair Lady" are advised, Moore said. Prices and arrangements for reservations, which will include mail orders, will be announced next month.

Based on Shaw's "Pygmalion," "My Fair Lady" grossed $20 million in Broadway box-office receipts, set a new run record, and has captured critical honors and a secure place in the literature of the musical stage.

The WT production will be a joint venture by the music, speech and art departments. Musical director will be Miss Elsa Porter, of the music department. Moore and Mrs. Moore will handle stage direction, and Neil Hess of Amarillo will be choreographer. The orchestra will be conducted by Rowie Durden, who is remembered for his work in "The King and I," the 1963 show.

Casting of "My Fair Lady" will require from 80 to 100 persons, Moore said, and will begin as soon as scripts are available.

NO VALENTINES were bought this year by fifth grade students in Mrs. Mitchell Jones' classroom. Instead the youngsters made the Canyon Heart Fund their Valentine project and collected $8.80 for the local heart fund association. Cindy Kuhlman, president of the class and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kuhlman, is ready to put more money into the heart box which was made by members of the class. Charles Ham, class treasurer and son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ham, and Mickey Ely, vice president and son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ely, look on.

Fund Campaign Slated Sunday

Randall County Heart Association annual meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight (Thursday) in the Commissioners Court Room in the Randall County Courthouse.

Residents of Canyon and the surrounding area have been invited to attend the meeting and hear Mr. C. W. Nickerson explain the activities of the heart association.

Nickerson is the area consultant of the Texas Heart Association and will be guest speaker at the annual meeting.

Heart Fund drive begins Saturday with a movie for Canyon school children. The movie, "Drums of Africa", will begin at 10 a.m. and parents will be able to pick their children up at 11:40 a.m., according to Clark Jarnagin, association president.

Admission to the movie will be a special Heart Fund drive envelope with each student's donation enclosed. Jarnagin pointed out no child will be turned away, but the donation gives each child a chance to participate in the drive.

Heart Sunday is scheduled for Feb. 23. Boy Scouts of America representing three Canyon troops will participate in a door-to-door campaign Sunday afternoon.

The town will be divided into three sections with each scout troop soliciting donations from residents in each section.

Letters were mailed this week to Randall County residents explaining the Heart Fund Raising campaign. Donations to this year's fund will be dedicated to 25 persons who died in Randall County of heart disease last year, according to Jarnagin.

Committee members of the Heart Fund Association are Dr. W. A. Cooper, Mrs. Thornton Dewey, Levi Cole, Dr. Manly Bryan, Raymond Batenhorst, Mrs. John Plant, Mrs. E. R. Reeves, Bill Sternberg, and Clark Jarnagin.

Dr. Charles R. Nester, member of the Canyon Independent School District board, will seek re-election to the board this year.

Nester, who is completing his first term on the board, filed notice for re-election with Huey W. Laycock, superintendent of the schools, Tuesday night.

Nester has practiced medicine in Canyon for 15 years.

U.S. Nazi Visits Canyon

BY TROY MARTIN

George Lincoln Rockwell, head of the American Nazi Party, stopped off in Canyon briefly Monday.

Rockwell said he came to Amarillo to ask for equal time on an Amarillo television station to answer Gordon Hall, Rockwell said Hall attacked him on television recently.

"I'm going down there this morning to ask for equal time to answer that—," Rockwell declared.

The latter-day admirer of Adolf Hitler is the self-styled "street fighter of the conservative movement."

He deplored the fact that most conservatives in this country want no part of him. He said the conservative movement needs the Nazi party, just as the Communist movement needs the liberal element.

"You don't see the Communists trying to get rid of the liberals or the liberals trying to get rid of the Communists," he said. "Yet, the conservatives won't have anything to do with me."

Rockwell said the conservative movement is filled with cowards, afraid to speak the truth about their beliefs.

"I say what most of them believe and are afraid to say," he declared. "Most of them believe the white race is superior, they hate Communism, and most of them don't like what the Jews are doing to this country."

Rockwell said he would not dignify the Negro race by referring to it as "colored" but would refer to members of that race as "niggers."

He said he would solve the "nigger" problem by "sending them back to Africa."

He said the Nazi Party advocates a grant of $10,000 to each Negro family willing to relocate somewhere in Africa.

"Liberia wants our niggers, and I want to give them our niggers," Rockwell declared. He said the American Negro is needed in Africa because of his being more highly skilled than most natives of the dark continent.

He said he felt that American Negroes would do well as citizens of their ancestral homeland.

He was vehement in his expression of belief in white supremacy.

"The white race has built civilization," he declared. "Niggers have never contributed anything but cannibalism and filth."

He was equally vehement in his denunciation of the Jewish race.

He said 80 percent of the Jews in this country have given their allegiance to a foreign power. He lumped Zionism in with Communism as equal recipients of his wrath.

Rockwell, 45 years old, from Arlington, Va., and father of seven children, likened Adolf Hitler to Jesus Christ.

Although himself an avowed agnostic, Rockwell said he is ready to die for Christianity. He said Hitler was deeply religious and gave generously to both Protestant and Catholic churches.

He branded as a myth the stories of Nazi persecution of the Jews in Hitler's Germany. He said most of the film shown in this country of purported Nazi atrocities was rigged.

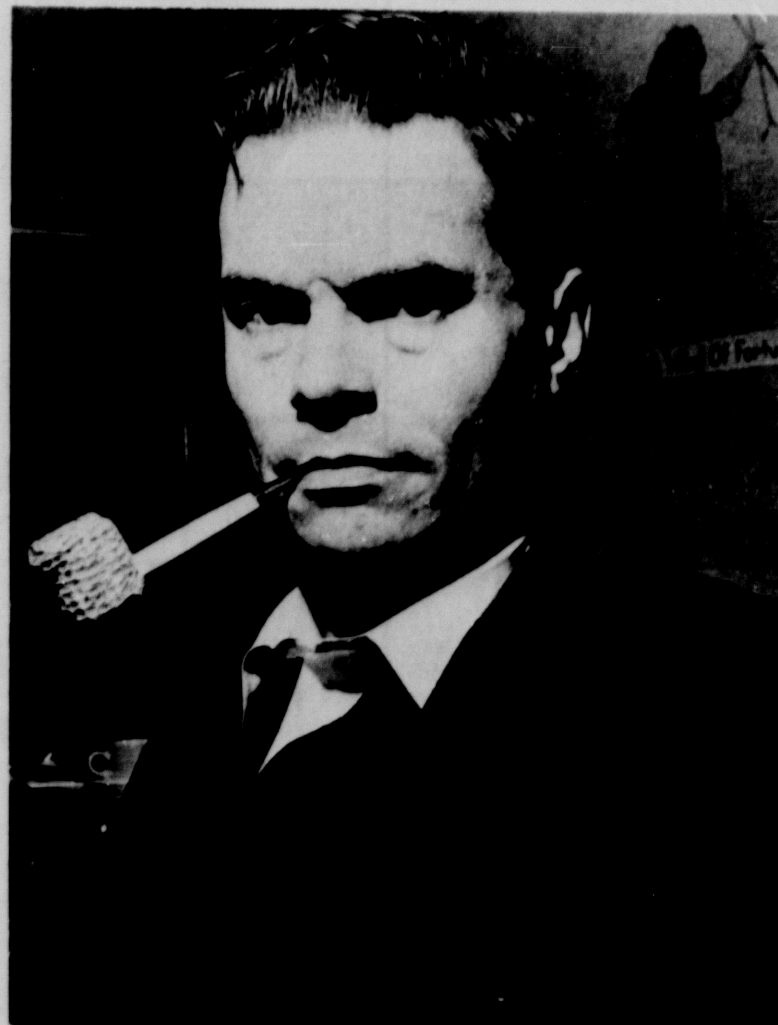

He declared that most of the bodies shown in atrocity films and said to be the bodies of slaughtered Jews actually were bodies of Germans killed in Allied air raids.

Rockwell was a Navy fighter pilot during World War II.

"I fought on the wrong side," he declared.

He said he rose to the rank of full commander in the Navy and then was booted out of the service for his political leanings.

Board Settles Cage Program

Girls basketball will stay—at least for the next two years.

Canyon school board Tuesday night decided to retain the competitive girls sport as the school moves up into AAA interscholastic league classification.

Principals of all three Canyon schools were re-elected. These include J. E. Miller, high school; Lawrence Brotherton, junior high school; and Oscar Hinger, elementary school.

The Eagles will begin playing in AAA next fall.

Some 50 members of the Eagle Booster Club and interested parents met with the board for more than an hour Tuesday night.

There is no provision for girls sports in AAA. However, some schools retain girls basketball. In the district in which Canyon will be competing Tulia, Muleshoe, and now Canyon will have girls basketball teams next season.

School officials said some difficulty may be encountered in scheduling games for the girls team because in conference play not all teams with which the Canyon boys will be competing will have girls teams.

This will mean that the boys may be going one place to play and the girls another on the same night. Also, AA schools may have full girl schedules with teams of their own class-

C-C Group Promotes Industry

The Industrial Development Committee of Canyon Chamber of Commerce adopted a program of work Monday at a noon meeting of that group.

Heading the committee are H. R. King and Troy Martin. The committee will concentrate on attracting small industries employing from a half-dozen to a dozen people.

There will be an effort to get area concerns to establish offices in Canyon.

Joe Gidden will compile a list of small research groups which might be attracted to Canyon by the establishment of the proposed research center at West Texas State University.

George Blackwell was appointed head of an airport committee. He will work in cooperation with the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce airport committee to secure an airport between Canyon and Amarillo.

Besides Martin and King, members of the industrial committee include Gidden, Dr. W. J. Wooten, Jerry LaGrone and Don Standley.

Ceremonies Slated For Boy Scouts

"God and Country" awards will be presented Sunday to nine Canyon Boy Scouts in a program at the First Baptist Church.

Meeting requirements for Scouting's highest church-related award are Ronnie Wooten, Barry Brown, Kenny Crossland, Mike Faulk, Mark Railroad, Phil Swartzell, Johnny Warren, Billy Don Crossland and Ricky Warren.

The awards are presented for service and spiritual achievement in a three-stage project and study plan.

Dr. W. J. Wooten was instructor for the Scouts. Study subjects included in the program for the awards were missions, Christian faith, the responsibilities of a Christian citizen, and the Bible.

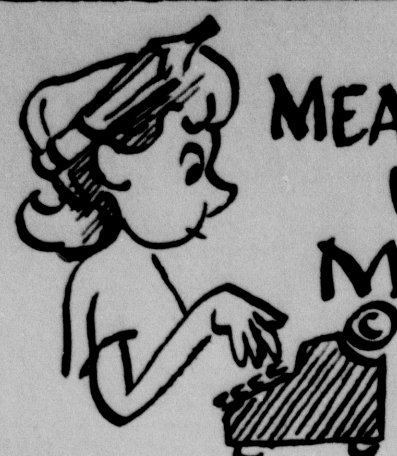

One of the main projects undertaken was painting and renovating furnishings in the elementary departments of First Baptist Church.

Snow Bill In Excess Of $5,000

The bill for clearing snow from Randall County roads in the wake of the Feb. 3-5 storm will be more than $5,000, according to E. T. Cummings, county auditor.

"We probably won't know the full amount until March 1," Cummings said.

The total will represent cost of hiring extra personnel as well as equipment, county commissioners said. Damage to roads has not yet been assessed but is expected to be substantial. Commissioners said full extent of damage will not be known until use of the roads discloses damage to substructure.

MEANDERING WITH MARGO

Hesitantly we sent a small bouquet of flowers home for Valentines last week.

We were slightly reluctant because we recalled the last time we sent flowers to Mother and the trouble the small token caused.

Having three daughters who were enrolled in different colleges in different states, and having a husband who traveled across the country raised a few problems for the female leader of our family.

One such problem seemed to appear each year around Mother's Day week end.

Somewhat we all managed to be away from home that week end and somehow we never were able to communicate with each other in time to see what the other ones were going to do for the special occasion. We each took it on ourselves to send our favorite mom a bouquet of flowers.

Mother's Day dawned with four beautiful bouquets perched on the living room table... each signed "Love, The Family". Needless to say, the florist asked Mother if she didn't know of someone who needed a bouquet. She had more trouble getting rid of the extra flowers than we had sending them to her.

Our family seems to be notorious for such incidents... either on purpose or accidentally.

One summer the Folks decided to take a vacation, leaving the three of us on our own.

WOMEN PAST 21 WITH BLADDER IRRITATION

After 21, common kidney or bladder irritations affect twice as many women as men and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent, burning or itching urination both day and night. Secondly, you may lose sleep and suffer from headaches, backache and feel old, tired, depressed. In such irritation, CYSTEX usually brings fast, relaxing comfort by curbing irritating germs in strong, acid urine and by analgesic pain relief. Get CYSTEX at drugists. Feel better fast.

Hilltop Views

As this column has remarked heretofore, a little history now and then is very good for mostall men. This is particularly true in national and international affairs. Panama today is a case in point, and I am making it the subject of this week's column.

An inter-Oceanic canal in Central America became a matter of international concern before the close of the 19th century. In fact it had been made almost inevitable (1) by the Monroe Doctrine (1823), and (2) by the rapid industrial and commercial expansion of the United States following the Civil War. Even before that war this country had obtained from Colombia the right of transit across the isthmus which then was a part of Colombia.

England, too, at that time mistress of the seas, was not overlooking the advantages of a waterway between the two oceans. In 1848 she entered into a treaty with the U. S. jointly to construct, fortify and operate a canal across Nicaragua.

In 1878 a French Company obtained a concession from Colombia to build a canal across Panama. Just as the Civil War had indefinitely delayed the construction of the Nicaragua Channel, so now financial difficulties obstructed the Panama project. After spending $300,000,000 the company became insolvent and a new company was organized for the purpose of recovering some of the losses.

In the meantime England and the United States had developed differences on the proposed construction of the Nicaragua canal, so when the reorganized French Company offered to sell its concession to a Panama strip for $40,000,000 the United States bought it (1903).

If such action seems precipitate, a combination of circumstances made it so. The Boxer uprising in China, the Boer War in South Africa, and other national and international disorders in the Eastern Hemisphere drew England's interest away from the West for a time.

The rapid rise of industry and commerce in the United States and the development of large corporations stimulated nationalism in this country during the last two decades of the 19th century and aroused dreams of economic empire.

The Spanish-American War at the turn of the century made plain this country's need for an isthmian canal, expanded our interests in Latin America, and established this nation as a world power.

Finally, the coming of Theodore Roosevelt to the presidency in 1901 gave this country a dynamic, fearsome, and spectacular leadership that never worried about the ethics of international diplomacy.

Teddy's motto was "Tread lightly and carry a big stick." History doesn't record any light treads, but apparently he was never without his big stick. When Colombia rejected the treaty which the United States submitted for her acquisition of a strip of land on which the canal would be built, President Roosevelt, through his diplomatic agent, arranged to stir up a revolution in Panama, obtain its independence, and set up a republic. The United States sent a battleship to Panama Nov. 2, 1903, and the army which Colombia was sending to put down the Panama revolution returned to its home base. The revolution ended the next day and on Nov. 4 Panama was proclaimed an independent republic and on Nov. 6 was recognized by the United States. Before the month ended an envoy from the new nation was in Washington. Exactly the same treaty that we had offered to Colombia was promptly accepted by Panama. It provided for the payment of $10,000,000 for a strip of land 6 miles west across the isthmus, the payment of $250,000 annually to Panama, and a guarantee of Panama's sovereignty.

In 1904 there was some criticism of the manner in which this country acquired the right to build the canal, whereupon Roosevelt is reputed to have said: "No one connected with this government had any part in preparing, inciting, or encouraging the revolution", but some years later said that he himself "took the Canal Zone and let Congress debate."

It need not be said that Latin American (particularly Colombia) has not yet forgotten the "big stick" of the United States as wielded in the Panama Canal case. While this country has kept her treaty obligations with Panama and has given that republic (so-called) a solid economic and cultural foundation, she has had trouble at one time or another with practically all Latin American nations and behind her diplomacy in many instances the Latins saw, or thought they saw, the big stick.

This Latin image of the United States is a rich seed bed for Communist infiltration. In all too many instances it has been fertilized by North American exploiters. It is not surprising therefore that communist Castro, also a Latin and trained in the school of Khrushchev, can and does keep the anti-American pot boiling. "Chickens will come home to roost."

FROM THE CANYON RIM

We interviewed George Lincoln Rockwell Tuesday. The things for which he stands are appalling.

What is even more frightening is his apparent sincerity. Like Hitler, Rockwell believes the Jews are in a large part responsible for the ills of the world. It would do no good to argue with this man.

He is convinced that Hitler was the victim of a red smear when he was accused of genocide in connection with the mass murders of Jews in Europe in the 1930s and 1940s.

We spent almost two hours with the American fuhrer. He repeatedly told us of mistreatment by what he termed the liberal or red press.

He complained of having been frequently misquoted. We insisted that the story on Rockwell carried in this edition be checked after it was written. The story in this edition is one with which der fuhrer will have to live.

He can never say he was misquoted.

Of course, there are bad Jews. But we could name a dozen who have contributed so much to the well-being of this country as to have earned an eternal niche in the nation's history.

If Einstein had been a man of evil he could have given the atom bomb to the country of his choice and reaped untold power and wealth. Instead of dicking with the children of the devil he cast his lot with the United States.

Jonas Salk gave us the first hope against polio. We could go on and on.

There are faults to be found with them as a race but the fact remains that Jews have contributed lavishly to our civilization in spite of persecution throughout history.

Rockwell's proposition that we transport the Negro en masse to Africa is preposterous.

We'd hate to be given $10,000 and turned loose in the Rhur Valley simply because some of our ancestors came from Germany.

Besides, this is a typical Communist or Nazi trick in solving a minority problem. Load the minority group on cattle cars or cattle boats as the case may be. Usually the people are all dead by the time the conveyance reaches its destination. Hence, the problem is solved.

Every man, regardless of race, color or creed, should be considered equal under the law. Every citizen has a right to expect unhindered use of tax supported institutions and facilities on an equal basis with all other citizens.

If these rights are denied, then the freedom of all may soon be in danger.

By the same token, all men have a right to use their own property as they see fit and to deny its use as they see fit. If this right is withdrawn by law, and we refer specifically to the public accommodations section of the pending Civil Rights Bill, then the right to own property is in grave jeopardy. Once the right to own proerty is abridged, then freedom has not long to live.

Men also have a right to choose associates. Hence, a man should be able to hire people of his own choosing and to live in a neighborhood of his own choosing among people of his own choosing without interference from government.

Any threat to the personal rights of any individual is a threat equally as grave to the rights of all. An unjust law passed today for the gain of a minority tomorrow may deprive that same minority of all its rights.

WT Students In Car Accident

Donna Lambert of Seagraves, a sophomore student at West Texas State University, received a broken arm in a one car accident Saturday night on the Amarillo Expressway.

Miss Lambert, a 21-year-old business major at WT, was a passenger in the car driven by Nolan Smiley of Denver City.

The accident occurred about 11:45 p.m. Saturday when the car left the highway and hit a guard post and cable. The small vehicle turned over once.

Ken Meadows was investigating officer.

Mrs. Melton Honoree At Open House

Mrs. George "Bessie" Melton was honored with an open house party at Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Amarillo, Feb. 6.

Miss Toles was one of the top ten Home Economics students in the state of Texas. Angela Airhart crowned the FHA beau, Ricky Harman, and presented him with a gift. Mr. Sam T. Bryan, Superintendent of Happy schools, was the speaker and presented some beautiful thoughts concerning the contributions young people can make toward family life.

Marvin Carruthers, with his electric guitar, entertained the group with a rendition of "Funny Little Clown", after which a quartet consisting of Marvin Carruthers, Martha Toles, Sheila La Duke, and Jerry Don Danner sang "One Boy--One Girl". They were accompanied by Betty Hardaway. The quartet then sang "Five Foot Two". U. S. Nazi.

He said he became a Nazi as a result of the McCarthy hearings. He said, "doctored news" was fed to the servicemen in Iceland where he happened to be stationed at the time.

Rockwell sent for the congressional records on the hearings.

After reading them, he said, he decided that Senator Joe McCarthy was one of the most persecuted men in American history.

He said he dons the Nazi uniform, complete with swastika arm band, when he is agitating.

"The race mixers and the Communists agitate, so why shouldn't we?" Rockwell asked.

"We are the street fighters of the conservative movement," Rockwell, who prides himself on having been in jail all over the country, says he is for nothing illegal. He says his group, watched over by Divine Providence, eventually will come to power and become the savior of white Christians the world over.

"I disagree with people who go out and whip niggers with bicycle chains," he asserted. "I don't think it's right."

Rockwell's disgust with the rightwing approaches his antipathy toward the liberal left.

"The rightwing is spineless and cowardly," he declared.

He verbally flayed governors Barnett of Mississippi and Wallace of Alabama.

"They said they'd go to jail before the niggers got into the schools," he said. "Well, the niggers are in school and Barnett and Wallace still are not in jail. If they had gone on to jail the people would have risen up."

Rockwell said he believes the Negro can never have self respect in this country and should therefore be sent back to Africa.

"They want everything we've got," he declared. "If we give them everything, they eventually will come to us and say 'we want your daughters.'"

Rockwell said most of the people convicted in this country for treasonable activity since World War II were of Jewish extraction.

However, he did say that innocent Jews "not mixed up in treason" should be protected. "I think that Jews who can be convicted before American juries should be wiped out legally," he declared. "I think this involves about 80 percent of the Jews."

Rockwell said Hitler only executed Jews who were Communist traitors and never was ification.

Some of the group present expressed concern over the entire physical education program at Canyon school. Hue-lynn Laycock, superintendent, said the school system does not have gymnasium space or coaching personnel to give each child individual attention.

The board also voted to review the physical education program with an eye to upgrading it for both boys and girls.

A request for transfers for school children living in an area just southeast of Amarillo was denied by the board. A three-person delegation from the area met with the board.

Lee Foster, tax assessor-collector who supervises taking school census, told the trustees that about 17 school children are involved. They are the only youngsters in the north part of the Canyon School District now attending school in Amarillo.

The delegation was told that bus facilities will be available to the children next school term and no transfers will be granted.

The school year was extended two days and school will run through May 29 with high school graduation to be held the evening of May 30. This was necessary because of days lost due to recent bad weather.

Deadline for filing for school board is 5 o'clock the afternoon of March 4. Names to be placed on the ballot will be certified and ballot positions will be drawn March 5.

Absentee ballots may be cast at the county clerk's office in the courthouse here during regular office hours between March 23 and 31.

Total school enrollment as of Feb. 13 was 1,971. Enrollment on the corresponding date last year was 1,811. Foster said the school census last year was 2,013. This year it stands at 2,167.

The board will meet at 7:30 o'clock next Monday night to hear a presentation of the school program by the administration staff.

through most of the third period. Steve Burgess drew the Eagles to within one point of the hosts, 42-41, with 1:52 remaining.

Going into the final period of play Floydada was out front, 50-47.

The Eagles suffered a big blow a minute deep in the period when Burgess left the game on fouls. He had played one of his best games of the season. Jody Richardson fouled out with 2:38 left to further hinder Canyon.

The score was knotted three times during the stanza. It was tied for the final time with 4:31 to be played at, 55-55.

Canyon was still in the contest at 0:59 when Evans stole the ball and drove for a layup to put the count at, 61-63.

Floydada connected on two straight for the victory.

Burgess led the Canyons scoring with 17 points. Skip Moore dumped in 14, Evans 11, Don Breitling 10, Poole 5, Richardson 4 and Jim Whinnery 2.

Canyon connected on 26 of 56 field goal tries for 46.4 per cent. From the charity line the Eagles made 11 of 19 attempts for 57.0 per cent.

In the girl's game Canyon took a shellacking, 72-34.

Canyon was never in contention after the Whirlwinds rolled to a 15 point first quarter lead, 20-5.

At halftime the count was 36-15.

Going into the final period of play Canyon trailed by 25 points, 55-30.

Cynthia Gerald took high point honors for Canyon with 15 points. Jan Jarnigan had 11, Ruth Purcell 6 and Andy Lair 4.

Dee Wilson bombed the nets for 37 points for Floydada.

Minor Damage At Fire Wednesday

Minor damage was reported Wednesday following a fire at Buffalo Drug in Canyon.

Fire fighters were called to the fire scene at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday to put out a fire on a cooking grill.

Grease on the grill caught fire causing minor smoke damage and one burned hamburger, according to fire chief Joe Rice.

ons per day, Bryant said, but use last summer peaked at a new high of 2.5 million gallons per day and 52 million gallons per month.

"This doesn't allow much margin for malfunction," Bryant said. "On the other hand, our overhead storage facilities are also on the short side, and it may be the commission will want to weigh the merits of a new well as against some other improvement."

The appropriation towards cost of another pumper truck for the Canyon Volunteer Fire Department was made contingent on a review of the fire marshal's recommendations as well as state-recommended equipment for a city the size of Canyon.

In the street budget, the street and alley item was upped from $7,000 to $10,000 to cover costs of a sealcoating program and increased maintenance costs as a result of bad weather. Sealcoating will run to about $7,000, Bryant said. The salary item in the street budget was cut from $17,520 to $14,820 by changing the ratio of part-time to full-time labor employed by the department.

In the water production department, the salary total was upped from $1,760 to $5,810 by proposed employment of an additional pump man. Equipment purchases are expected to rise from $325 to $1,500 mainly as a result of purchase of a meter test bench. The device tests several meters at the same time and holds water level during tests to a minimum.

In the water distribution budget, the water main item has been increased from $4,500 to $5,000 and the meter item from $6,500 to $9,500, reflecting increasing costs as well as expected growth of the city.

In the sewer budget, $5,000 is appropriated for sewer costs and $12,992 to sidewalk, curb and gutter projects.

The administrative salaries item shows an increase from $19,760 to $23,000, reflecting employment of a full-time city tax assessor-collector.

Police, park and pool budgets show only minor increases.

Of the total $414,500 budget proposed for 1964-65, $81,255 is earmarked for debt service. Of this amount, all but $38,030 is expected to be realized from sewer and water revenues.

Appeal Case
Hearing Ends
In Mistrial
Conviction of a Sweetwater Texas, man in Randall County Court on a charge of speeding was set aside Monday and a mistrial declared when a poll of the jury disclosed that one juror apparently had based his vote on a misconception of the law.
Herman J. Williams on of Sweetwater had appealed from a $5 fine imposed in justice of peace court here on charges of exceeding the speed limit on the expressway.
The jury Monday found him guilty and assessed a fine of $50.
The mistrial was declared by County Judge Wayland Angel when George Beall, defense counsel from Sweetwater, called for a poll of individual jurors and discovered the irregularity in the verdict.

Poole Takes First In Scoring Chase

Eddie Poole captured the scoring title for Canyon's Eagles through the regular season of play.

He clipped the nets for an 11.7 average per game. Poole was second in rebounding with 177. From the field he connected on 159 of 309 tries for 51 per cent and 68 of 118 free tosses for 58 per cent.

Don Breitling finished with a 10.8 scoring average and pulled down 114 caroms. He sank 129 of 316 attempted field goals for 41 per cent and 98 of 149 charity tosses for 67 per cent.

Bobby Evans was third in scoring with an 8.8 average per game while pulling down 108 rebounds. He made 85 of 174 field goal attempts for 49 per cent and 84 of 132 free throw tries for 63 per cent.

Jim Whinnery had a 7.9 shooting average. He hit on 100 of 247 attempted field goals for 41 per cent and 98 of 149 free throw tries for 67 per cent.

Steve Burgess finished with a 7.6 average through the 33 games. He hit on 101 of 198 tries from the field for 51 per cent and on 49 of 76 charity tries for 64 per cent.

Skip Moore had an 8.0 average, connecting on 91 of 158 field goal attempts for 58 per cent—tops on the team—and on 61 of 87 free tries for 70 per cent.

Jody Richardson held a 4.9 scoring average. He sank 59 of 130 field goal attempts for 45 per cent and 45 of 58 free tosses for 77 per cent.

Burgess was high in rebounds with 215. Moore had 175.

As a team Canyon connected on 747 of 1,604 field goal attempts for 46.5 per cent. From the charity stripe the Eagles hit on 488 of 749 tries for 65.2

Josephine Hubbard, daughter of the V. B. Hubbards, spent last week-end at Taos, New Mexico for a skiing outing.

Miss Hubbard is a member of the Amarillo Skiing Club and the week-end outing was attended by a number of Amarillo students, also.

The Eagles had a 60.1 scoring average per game. Opponents managed 48.0 points per game.

Canyon finished regular season play with a 24-9 mark. The Eagles tied Floydada for the District 2-AA co-championship with identical 6-2 marks.

The two teams play again to see which club will represent the district in the state playoffs. The game will be played in Tulia at 8 p.m. Friday.

WTSU Cagers Could Set Best Record Since '55

West Texas State University has a good opportunity of recording the school's best basketball record since 1954-55.

The Buffs, by upsetting Oklahoma City University, have run their record to 10-9 against college teams. With three remaining contests, the Buffs could run its record to 13-9 for the season.

West Texas has beaten each of its remaining opponents (McMurry, Oklahoma City and New Mexico State) once this year.

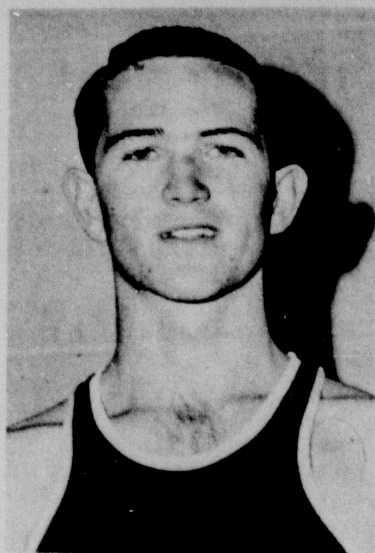

If the Buffs could bring home three more wins, it would be a banner season for the team and for coach Jimmy Viramontes in his first year as head mentor.

Since the 1954-55 season, only two West Texas clubs have come up with winning seasons. The 1955-56 team was 12-10 and the 1959-60 edition was 11-9. So, the Buffs need to win but two of the three remaining games to equal the '55-'56 mark.

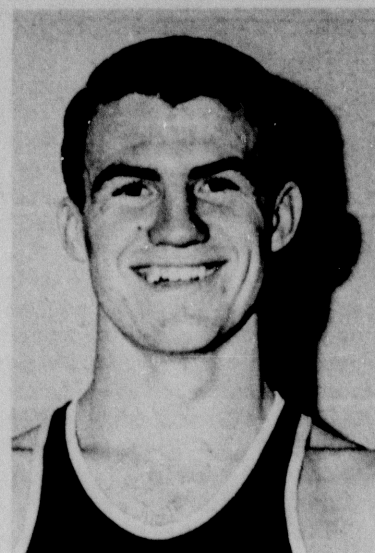

West Texas has one other game remaining—February 28 against Phillips 66 Oilers. This contest is listed as an exhibition and the totals are not entered into the NCAA statistics.

The Buffs have won seven of 13 road games this year. McMurry will invade Buffalo Fieldhouse Saturday at 8 p.m. to test the Buffs.

West Texas drilled the Indians, 76-70, in the last meeting. Oklahoma City University will be here

EDDIE POOLE

DON BREITLING

Marvin Mitchell is second in scoring with a 12.4 average. James Strahan is rolling along at a 12.2 clip, followed by Kirby Pugh 9.7, Frank Schaffer 9.3, Gail Simpson 5.1, David Sherod 5.3, Joe McWilliams 4.8, George Scott 5.5 and Dale Burrows 1.5.

West Texas has connected on 574 of 1,167 attempted field goals for 49.2 per cent.

Ninth Grade Takes Third At Tourney

The Canyon Junior High ninth grade completed its cage season in weekend action by taking third place honors at the Dimmitt Tournament.

Coached by W. M. Nickells, Canyon finished with an 11-7 season mark.

Canyon captured its first win on a forfeit by Springlake.

In the second scheduled game Canyon fell to a tough Littlefield outfit, 48-40. Tulia was blasted 65-56 in an overtime match with Canyon.

In the Littlefield contest Canyon trailed at the end of the first quarter, 9-7, and 18-17, at halftime.

Going into the final period Littlefield was out front, 31-27.

Richard Gardner was high for Canyon with 22 points. Joe Moore had 11, Jerry Nickell 3 and Don Howard and Mark Olson 2 each.

Howard stole the ball and scored with 10 seconds remaining to send the Canyon-Tulia game into overtime. The score at the end of regulation play was 56-44.

In the three minute overtime period Canyon pumped in nine points while holding Tulia scoreless.

Canyon had trailed throughout the contest until Howard knotted the count at 56-56.

With two minutes to be played during regulation Canyon trailed by ten points, 54-44.

The score was tied at the end of the first quarter, 9-9. At halftime Tulia led, 28-22, and going into the final period the losers were out front, 43-37.

Moore was high with 23 points. Gardner had 20, Howard 12, Nickell 7, Scott Russell 2 and Scott Downing 1.

During the season Canyon averaged 48 points a contest while limiting opponents to 42 points a tilt.

Moore ripped the nets for 279 points and a 16.7 average. Gardner had 231 points and a 14.0 average.

Simpson's Shot Gives Buffs Win Over Touted OCU Chiefs

By John Shields

Borger sophomore Gail Simpson sank a last second 30-foot jump shot Saturday to give West Texas State a 56-54 upset win over the Oklahoma City Chieftains.

Chieftain coach Abe Lemons lodged protests that the buzzer had sounded before Simpson's shot was airborne. But it was to no avail and the Buffs evened their mark once again at 10-10.

The mighty Phillips 66 Oilers made shambles of West Texas State's defense in the closing minutes Friday at Bartlesville to notch an 86-65 win.

It was no shame, however, to lose to the Oilers. The Phillips squad is composed of former college stars who had the advantage both in experience and height.

In the Oklahoma City contest West Texas took the lead for the first time, 12-10 on a shot by James Strahan. He ripped the nets on three more consecutive tries and the Buffs rolled to a nine point lead, 29-20.

At halftime West Texas held a 39-32 lead.

Then came the almost tragic second half for the Buffs.

The Chieftains were hot and West Texas managed to hit only one field goal in the first 10 minutes of the second half.

This cold spell by the Buffs enabled Oklahoma City to take a 49-43 lead with ten minutes remaining. With 7:40 left the count was 52-47 in favor of the hosts.

Coach Jimmy Viramontes Buffs then came to life and initiated the fast break which worked to perfection. Marvin Mitchell connected on the first field goal for the Buffs. Frank Schaffer pumped in two more from the field to put West Texas in the lead, 53-52.

Scottie Pierce hit on a charity toss before the Chieftains found the range again. When they did the count was knotted 54-54 with 4:30 to be played.

After taking the ball West Texas went into a stall. On an attempted shot by the Buffs the ball was tied up.

The Chieftains took possession at 3:06 and went into a stall. With the crowd in an uproar and the clock slowly ticking away, John Hopkins passed to Eddie Jackson. He put up an unsuccessful jump shot with nine seconds showing. Jackson got his own rebound but stepped out of bounds, giving West Texas possession.

A time out was called by West Texas to obtain final instructions from Viramontes.

Marvin Mitchell got hemmed in near mid-court with only three seconds left and it appeared the Buffs weren't going to get off a shot. Mitchell then passed to Simpson.

Simpson ripped the nets with his game-winning 30-footer.

Pierce paced the Buff attack with a 17 point performance. Mitchell had 15, Schaffer 11, Strahan 9 and Simpson 4.

In the Friday night affair with the Oilers, it was only in the final 10 minutes that spelled defeat for West Texas.

At that point the Buffs trailed by only two points, 59-57. West Texas managed to score only eight points the remainder of the tilt.

The well-oiled Phillips crew held the Buffs at bay by as much as 15 points throughout much of the first half. But the Buffs joined forces to make the count 43-37 at halftime.

Professional Men Initiated

Initiation ceremonies for ten area men were conducted last Thursday at Wyatt's cafeteria in Amarillo by Gamma Xi Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa, an international professional fraternity for men in education.

The dinner program, following the initiation ceremony, was presented by W. C. Harter, elementary school principal of Borger, and president of Gamma Xi chapter. Harter presented a film strip on the history and organization of the fraternity to the initiates and some 25 other members present.

Local chapter officers are W. C. Harter, Borger, president; Kenneth Waugh, Canyon, vice president; Charles M. Sadler, Amarillo, secretary; and Charles L. Miller, Amarillo, historian.

Initiated at the meeting were Dean Bingham, Bill Brantley, James Burns, John Duncan, Cecil Dykes, Kenneth Goach, Hayward Greene, Bob Phillips, Floyd Sackett, and Robert Thompson, all professional education men encompassing the principals of junior and senior high schools, counselors, band directors, and other positions with area schools.

Classified ads in The Canyon News get fast results.

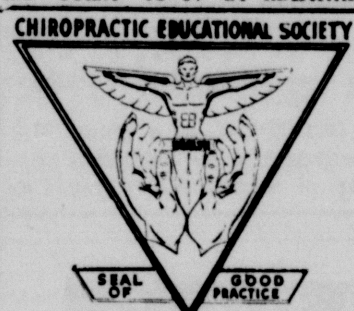

West Texas connected on 22 of 65 field goal attempts for a cool 33.8 per cent—lowest percentage of the season—and on 21 of 24 free throw tries for 87.5 per cent.

Pierce was again the leader with 17 points. Kirby Pugh had 13, George Scott and Marvin Mitchell 10 each, Schaffer 9, Strahan 3, Simpson 2, and McWilliams 1.

The four games left on the West Texas schedule are all home tilts. McMurry will invade the Buffalo Fieldhouse Saturday at 8 p.m. Oklahoma City will be here the following Thursday and Phillips 66 Friday Feb. 28.

Marcella Irlbeck and Martha Toles netted 19 points each, led only by Irita Bowe who dropped in 20 points for the Cowgirls.

The Cowboys lost their efforts to put the district title in a tie by dropping to the Cagers, 76-45.

David Penn bagged 14 points for the boys.

Tuesday night both teams travelled to Nazareth to play a makeup game which had been postponed because of the severe weather several weeks ago.

Marcella Irlbeck and Irita Bowe netted 17 points each to lead the Cowgirls to a 61-33 victory.

Gary Culp bagged 10 points for the Cowboys, but Happy lost, 61-45.

Happy made 16 field goals compared to 15 by Nazareth, and 28 fouls were called against the Cowboys.

Marcella Irlbeck leads the Cowgirls in total scoring for the year with an average of 17.3 points per game. Irita Bowe follows with 16 points per game and Martha Toles is third with an average of 11.5.

The girls and freshmen team will travel to Abernathy Friday night to play a warm-up

WT Graduate To Coach At Muleshoe

Willie McAlpine, a West Texas State University graduate, has been hired as the new head football coach at Muleshoe High School.

McAlpine, who has been an assistant coach at Muleshoe for two years, will fill the position of Bill Taylor who resigned recently.

Taylor had coached at Muleshoe for 10 years, seven years as an assistant and three as a head coach. His team took district championships in 1962 and 1963. With his resignation from coaching duties, Taylor said that he would like to remain as a teacher in the school system.

McAlpine had coached at Silverton High School prior to becoming an assistant at Muleshoe.

Texas Tech Picadors Humble WT Stompers

The West Texas State Stompers displayed a fine effort Tuesday at Lubbock before falling to Texas Tech's Picadors, 88-69.

West Texas will be host to Frank Phillips Jr. College Saturday at 6 p.m. The Buffaloes entertain McMurry of Abilene in the nightcap at 8 p.m.

In the last meeting of McMurry and the Buffs West Texas took a 76-70 victory. It will be the first meeting of the freshmen and FPC this season.

West Texas battled Texas Tech on even terms through the first eight minutes of play with the lead changing hands or being tied nine times. Then the hosts pulled away to a 16-10 lead.

The Stompers rallied for seven straight points to take the lead for the final time, 17-16.

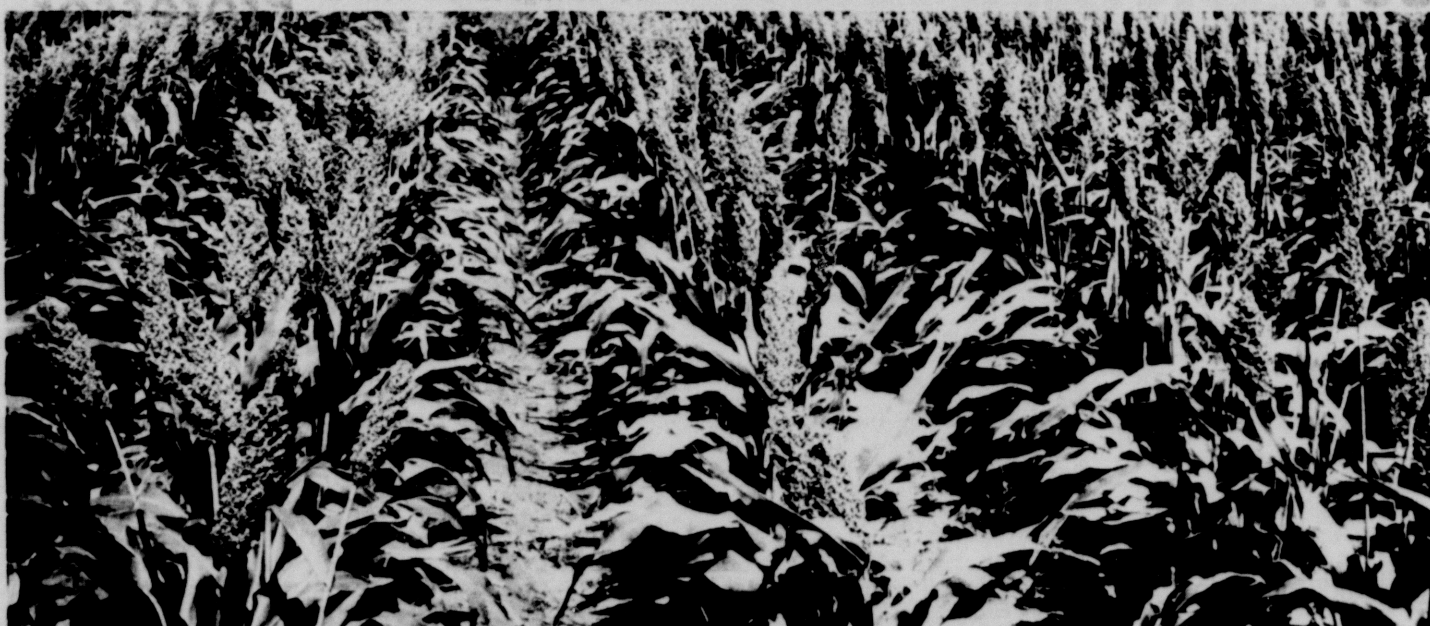

At halftime Tech had rolled to a 47-29 advantage.

West Texas cut the margin to ten points in the final 20 minutes but couldn't overtake the Picadors.

The loss left the Stompers with a 6-5 season mark. Tech has lost only one game this season. San Angelo Jr. College downed the Picadors 102-73 earlier this year.

Ted Wheeler played an outstanding game for West Texas. He was high point man for the Stompers with 25 points. Wade King had 12, Billy Patton 11, Wallace Franklin 10, Sherfield Whaley and Mickey Fitts 4 each and Harry Lisle 3.

Deadline For Cotton Set March 4

Deadline for releasing or requesting cotton acreage for 1964 is March 4, according to Jack Frost, chairman of the Randall County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Prompt release of unwanted cotton acreage is especially important, Frost said, since other farmers may be able to make use of the allotment this year. Farmers who release unwanted acreage will in most instances receive a full allotment history for the released acreage and "will be contributing to a stronger economy for the county," Frost said.

He suggested that producers who have neighbors or friends who do not intend to plant cotton this year should encourage them to release their acreage before deadline at the ASC office, 1408 South Ave.

Chamber Of Commerce Corner

The Canyon Chamber of Commerce has spent the last month getting organized for this year 1964. They have had two board meetings with nearly all in attendance; and have shown very much enthusiasm and eagerness to make this town a better community in which to live and make a living.

Committee appointments have been made and approved by the board. A suggested work program has been given chairmen of each committee and meetings have been set up for this week to discuss objectives to be accomplished during the year and start action as soon as a budget can be made at our next regular board meeting next Monday in the County Commissioners Court Room.

We have nine small committees with directors serving on each in order to keep the board in touch with progress and problems arising. The committees named are as follows: BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT, INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT, AGRICULTURE & LIVESTOCK, TOURIST DEVELOPMENT, COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT, EDUCATION COMMITTEE, LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE, FINANCE COMMITTEE, AND PUBLIC RELATIONS & PUBLICITY COMMITTEE.

The business development committee has as its chairman, Bennie Cooper. They will be studying how business can better serve you and how to increase trade territory and give more employment in our community.

The Industrial Development Committee is co-chaired by two directors, H. R. King and Troy Martin. The main objectives of this committee will be to attract more payroll to our town and work up industrial brochure in trying to get industry to settle in our community.

The Agriculture & Livestock committee has as its chairman Roger Gist, Jr., and has an important job to do in encouraging farmers and ranchers to be the suppliers for the Southwest in all of its products. Agriculture and livestock play a large part in the economy of our area.

The Legislative committee has as its chairman, Jack Jennings. The objectives of this committee are to formulate chamber policies on basic national issues, such as, tax cut, taxes, spending, labor management laws, social security, national defense, foreign aid and other matters of concern. This committee should talk to all candidates coming to our area and tell them what we need and want in government.

Another committee is the Finance committee headed by Barney Barnard, and Mr. W. A. Bill Wilson. The functions of this committee are very vital, as you know, to the life of this or any other organization. It is our hope to give the businessmen more help and receive the same efforts from its members.

We are working on the forming of another committee to be called the public relations & publicity committee. This year Canyon will celebrate its 75th anniversary and this committee will plan trips to all neighboring cities advertising Canyon, Home of West Texas State University, and our tourist attractions and give red carpet treatment to all dignitaries visiting our area.

All of these committees will have many sub-committee appointments to help in each phase of its work program; so if you haven't been contacted; please let us know what you are interested in and be willing to help when you are called on.

The Chamber of Commerce has a joint meeting of all service clubs, and others interested, set up for March 12th for a noon luncheon and hear Mr. Harry W. Clark, executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission. Shortly after this, a community forum will be staged in our town to give all citizen's a chance to tell us what you think is our greatest need for a better community. This date will be announced soon.

My closing thought is: "IF YOU WERE BOSS, WOULD YOU WANT TO EMPLOY YOURSELF? THINK IT OVER."

Feed Grain Sign-Up Deadline March 27

Participation in the feed grains program will be necessary again this year if producers wish to be eligible for price support on 1964 crops of corn, grain sorghum and barley, says Jack Frost, chairman of the Randall County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Minimum acreage diversion under the program will be 20 per cent of a farm's total feed grains base. Producers may sign up for the program from now through March 27.

The 1964 feed grains program will be the same as the program last year except for the following modifications.

Top limit on diversion is increased from 40 to 50 per cent or 25 acres, whichever is greater.

In computing diversion and price support payments, the average yield figures will be based on the four-year (1959-62) average instead of the two-year (1959-60) average.

The feed grain base of any producer who planted up to 30 acres of wheat for home use under the feed grain exemption during any one of the years 1959-61, inclusive, will be increased to the extent the three-year average of such wheat acreage exceeded 15 acres.

While total prices supports for the three grains in 1964 are unchanged from 1963 levels, a slightly larger proportion of supports will be available as loans or purchases, with corresponding decreases in price support payments.

Payments to any producer are limited to not more than 20 per cent of the fair market value of any acreage involved.

The maximum payment rate will apply to all the acreage diverted where the total diversion on the farm is 40 per cent or more of the base.

Support prices for gains included in the 1964 feed grain program were announced July 18, 1963, as follows: corn (per bushel), $1.10 loan, 15-cent price support payment, $1.25 total support; grain sorghum (per cwt.), $1.77 loan, 23-cent payment, $2 total support; barley (per bushel), 84-cent loan, 12-cent payment, 96-cent total support.

Mrs. W. R. Franklin Offers Recipes For Two Desserts

BY LORENA MILLER

Mrs. W. R. Franklin, the former Miss Fannie Sluder, who attended Fairview and Wayside schools during the "horse and buggy days," is sharing recipes for an Old Fashioned Bread Pudding and Ginger Cookies with readers this week.

Mrs. Franklin, who was born in Dallas County, moved to a farm mid-way between Wayside and Fairview at the age of seven. Her parents, the late W. J. Sluders, were farmers in the community.

"My oldest sister and I walked about two and a half miles to attend Fairview School, during those days," recalls Mrs. Franklin. "Later, when my dad bought a buggy, we went to Wayside School."

In a marriage ceremony June 14, 1911, Miss Sluder became the bride of W. R. Franklin, who had moved to Wayside about 1908 from a farming community located near Nocona, Texas.

The young couple settled on a farm about three and a half miles west of Wayside. After operating the farm for a period of 47 years, the Franklins sold their farm and moved to Canyon in 1960.

Their present home, 610 14th Street, is a six room residence which includes a large living room, dining room, kitchen and three bedrooms, that are graced with a variety of items collected by Mrs. Franklin during her 52 years of marriage.

"With our children all married we really don't need the third bedroom, except when they all are home on vacations," said Mrs. Franklin as she stated that the extra bedroom has been converted into a utility room for the family deepfreeze and is also used as her "ironing room".

The couple has three children, two sons and a daughter. Roy Franklin, the eldest, lives in Canyon with his family which includes three children at home, and two married children.

Kerry Franklin, Mrs. Franklin's grandson, received his degree from West Texas State University and presently is a science teacher at Canyon High School. Roy's other married child is a daughter who is living in California.

The Franklin's daughter, Mrs. Fannie Mae Fryburger lives in Paonia, Colorado and has two step-children. Mrs. Fryburger attended West Texas State University prior to her marriage.

Glen Franklin, youngest of the Franklin's children, lives in Dayton, Ohio with his wife and daughter, 8 years old. He is employed with Frigidaire.

"Glen took my mantel clock to Ohio with him last time he was down and had it refinished," said Mrs. Franklin. The mantel clock was one of the first things that Mrs. Franklin purchased after her marriage in 1911.

"I pooled a $5.00 goldpiece that was given to me by my grandmother as a wedding gift, with money from my mother and grandmother to order the clock out of a catalog," she said. "I had always thought that the clock was made of mahogany, but when it was refinished it turned out to be cherry wood."

The clock, which still keeps accurate time, is exhibited on the fireplace mantel amidst Mrs. Franklin's African violet collection. Shelves extending from the fireplace mantel are used for displaying the Franklin's books and an old fashioned coal oil lamp with a decorative cut glass base. The lamp was a wedding gift to the couple.

"This coffee mill is the same age as I am, because my mother bought it the same year that I was born," Mrs. Franklin commented. The wooden coffee mill has a special drawer which catches the ground coffee, after the coffee beans have been placed in the attached grinder and processed by turning the long metal handle.

An heirloom painting which depicts a lighthouse with seagulls and ships in the foreground is prominently hung on the livingroom wall of the Franklin home. The painting was made by Aunt Bessie Lane in 1898 and is an heirloom gift from Mrs. Franklin's aunt. The late Mrs. Lane, an art teacher, painted a western scene at the age of 75 for her niece.

"My granddaughter in California is a free lance painter," says Mrs. Franklin. "She painted this picture from a calendar print." The picture Mrs. Franklin spoke of is of mountains, a waterfall, and a brown bear on a steep ledge.

"I enjoy sewing and crochet," Mrs. Franklin commented. In recent years she has crocheted a bedspread along with numerous dollies and has spent the past several months making cross stitch aprons (30) and smocked gingham pillows. "I've given most of them to friends and relatives though," she says.

The dining room wall is decorated with a collection of scenic plates and centered with a hand painted plate that was presented to the couple as a wedding gift. What-not shelves in the room are laden with collected items including a glass train engine "that was filled with candy" according to Mrs. Franklin; and a number of miniature items carved out of wood by their youngest son, Glen.

The items carved by Glen include a ship, complete with steam stack, a duck, a replica of Little Orphan Annie's puppy, and a realistic replica of a plane that Glen took flying lessons in.

"When we were in California on our 48th wedding anniversary my husband's niece gave a party and among the gifts we received were this pottery doll and a tea pot which sings 'Tea For Two' while you are pouring," Mrs. Franklin said. The unusual pottery doll has a slitted skirt for holding napkins, holds a basket for toothpicks, and wears a candle hat; the large pottery doll has two matching miniature dolls which serve as salt and pepper shakers.

"My mother used to make Old Fashioned Bread Pudding when I was a child and it has always been one of my favorite recipes, besides being a good way to use up stale bread. Mother always made it with biscuits but I'm sure that dry lightbread, so common today, would also be good in the pudding," says Mrs. Franklin. Her recipe for Old Fashioned Bread Pudding follows:

Combine: 3 cups milk
3 eggs
1 tsp. vanilla or nutmeg, flavoring
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups bread crumbs

Bake in slow moderate oven for 35 to 40 minutes until a silver knife comes out clean when testing. Cooked rice may be substituted for bread crumbs. Raisins may be added if desired.

Mrs. Franklin's second recipe has been a favorite of hers since she was a young bride and "the children always kept the cookie jar empty," she commented.

"An apple slice placed in the bottom of the cookie jar will keep the cookies from becoming too crisp," Mrs. Franklin hinted as she quoted the recipe which follows.

Ginger Cookies
1 cup white sugar
1 cup oleo
1 Tbsp. vinegar
1 cup molasses
1 egg
3 Tbsp. hot water
1 tsp. soda
1 tsp. allspice
1 tsp. ginger
1 tsp. cinnamon

Mix all ingredients and then gradually add enough flour to make a good stiff dough. Place the cookie dough on a floured pastry board and roll thin, cut, and bake in a moderate oven until crisp and done.

EXQUISITE VALENTINES from the early 1900's are being shown by Mrs. W. R. Franklin, who shares her favorite recipes for Old Fashioned Bread Pudding and Ginger Cookies with our readers this week. The two Valentines that she is holding were "exchanged while we were going together" says Mrs. Franklin, mother of three.

WT Music Department To Increase

An addition to the music department at West Texas State University will be made in the future, according to Dr. J. E. Green, chairman of the department.

Dr. Green explained that the new member of the department will be a conductor of the WT orchestra and will instruct string instrument students.

"We will seek a person who will be in charge of coaching string chamber music, and who will teach the string class for music education students. He will also teach students privately in string instruments," Green said.

Green said a final decision would be made in several months concerning who would be hired for the position.

MRS. ALFRED WOODS

Dorm Counselor Busy With Freshmen Girls

BY MARGO WILLIAMS

University living begins in a freshman dorm as girls and their parents experience the first few hectic but exciting hours of life on a university campus.

What room do I have? On the third floor?

Who is my roommate?

Are you sure my daughter will be taken care of?

Will you watch her closely? She catches colds easily.

These and many more questions must be answered the first few days of each fall when freshmen girls begin moving in at West Texas State University.

And the responsibility for unraveling the complex of university do's and don'ts for the newly arrived coeds falls on the lap of Mrs. Alfred Woods.

Mrs. Woods is head counselor of McCaslin Hall, freshman girls dorm at WT, and for her each fall begins with a rush of young girls.

Mrs. Woods' job differs from other dorm counselors on the campus due to the age of the girls. These girls know little, if anything, about the campus. They know very little about what is expected of freshmen coeds, but they do know what they expect from a university and they are eager to face the next 4 years.

So the first few months of a new school year are spent explaining, establishing and helping the freshmen girls.

A dorm counselor in charge of a freshman dorm must be unique in her abilities to talk with people.

"She must be patient and very understanding," says Ruth Cross, dean of women at West Texas.

And because of these qualities Mrs. Woods assumed duties as "mother" of the freshmen in 1959.

"Until that time we had upperclassmen and freshmen in the same dormitory. In 1959 we put only freshmen in the dorm," Mrs. Woods explained.

This woman, who has been with WTSU since 1942, said the biggest problem freshmen girls have is adjusting to being away from home.

"It is a big adjustment to be away from home for the first time, and our job is to help the girls make that adjustment," she continued.

Mrs. Woods has been a counselor in McCaslin Hall (which was Randall Hall until 1963) since 1949, when she moved into the dorm as assistant to Mrs. Nancy McCaslin.

This quiet-spoken woman had been reared on a farm near Turkey and had attended school in Memphis. Her father had been a farmer in Caldwell County but had moved his family to the Panhandle in 1916.

"We came in a covered wagon. 1916 was rather late to be moving in a covered wagon because there were a few cars," Mrs. Woods explained.

In fact, it was only a few years later that I. L. Perkins, father of the prospective dorm counselor, bought the second car in Hall County.

"It was a Ford, and he bought it because my brother and sister and myself boarded nine months of the year in Memphis. With the car we could get home more often and see the family more," she continued.

Mrs. Woods was born Feb. 19, 1906 and was 15 when she married Alfred Woods. The young couple moved to a ranch near Clarendon and began their married life as a rancher and his wife.

They began looking around for a place near Canyon, and in 1935 Woods became a herdsman for McSpadden Ranch.

"We had three children and we wanted to get close to the school so they could go right on through," she explained.

A. L. Woods, oldest child, is an electrical engineer for Milparr and recently returned from Thailand, after two years in the foreign country.

The Woods' daughter, Mrs. Robert Summers, lives in Amarillo with her husband and two children. She graduated from WT and taught in Amarillo for six years before becoming a teacher in Canyon where she taught for a year at her alma mater.

Bennie Woods and his wife have two children and live in Canyon. Bennie works for Consumers Fuel and Elevator.

In 1942, Mrs. Woods began working for West Texas Teachers College as dietitian for the athletic department.

"Coach Miller (W. E. Gus) hired me as a completely inexperienced dietitian. I had cooked for ranch hands, but I was inexperienced as a dietitian," she recalled.

"I was skeptical about being around those athletes, but I soon learned they were the nicest young men. They washed the dishes, and they were always so very nice around me," she continued.

Her seven years with Coach Miller and the boys in the athletic department were the first steps for Mrs. Woods in the counseling field.

"Coach Miller once gave me a yardstick to help in working with college students. He told me to listen to the student's side of the story and see if he didn't have a point.

"That was about the best advice I have ever had, and I have found that to listen to the other person's side really works," she said.

Mr. Woods died in 1948 and the following year Mrs. Woods moved into the dormitory. She quickly learned what qualities were needed to be a good house director.

"I can't help but wonder if I'm giving the right advice to these girls. It is so important to tell them the right thing, and I can't help wondering sometimes if I am telling the things to do which are best for them," she reported.

When she became director of the dorm in 1954 she took on the full responsibility for the eager young ladies enrolled at the university.

"One thing I have learned in these few years I've been a counselor, is that I can't solve every problem with the girls, but I can make it where we can live with it," she pointed out.

Does she enjoy her work? "Oh! Yes. Some people think they like young people but to really like young people you must also like to take responsibility for them. This job is a full time one with full time responsibility. I enjoy it.

It is interesting and the girls are wonderful people," she continued.

"Girls change each year. I think they are better prepared for college now than they have been in the past. They come to us as better students.

"I think youngsters must have discipline. You don't have to be strict on them, just maintain discipline.

The mood for a dorm is set during the first few days of each school year. Wing advisors, the dorm assistant counselor and the dorm director are responsible for setting the mood of a dorm. The mood in McCaslin Hall hit a high level this year. Cooperation has been the key word for residents of the freshman dorm.

"They work together nicely and they are eager for new things. We won the best dormitory decoration trophy at Homecoming because the girls worked hard, and they worked together," she said.

But Mrs. Woods does not stop with the dorm in her activities. She is an honorary member of Zeta Tau Alpha social sorority and has been active in the Panhellenic Council since its beginning at WT in 1956. She is senior advisor for the council and takes a personal interest in the success of each sorority on campus.

"West Texas State University is a part of me. After 22 years with an institution the institution becomes a way of life for you. WT is a part of my life, and the administration and the faculty have been wonderful to me."

Mrs. Alfred Woods has become a part of the University for hundreds of girls who have lived as part of McCaslin Hall during the years she has served as director and assistant director.

She has helped each girl engrave a place in the institution for herself. And with each engraving, Mrs. Woods becomes a representative of the accomplishment made by West Texas State University in molding of the lives of Panhandle youngsters.

"Strengthen America—Scouting Can Make The Difference" was used as the theme for the annual Blue and Gold Banquet for Cub Scout, Pack 97, last Thursday evening.

The banquet, held at the cafeteria of Canyon Junior High, was a founding celebration for the 54th year of Boy Scouting.

Meade Michael, cub master, served as master of ceremonies and lit a good fellowship candle to start the banquet festivities.

BSU Students Serve As Good Will Ambassadors

BY LORENA MILLER

Adios, Amigos, 'til we meet again!

"The personal friendship that developed between our students and the Mexican BSU group was the success of our trip," says James Dunn, student director of the Baptist Student Union at West Texas State University.

Dunn and 58 BSU students and sponsors from Canyon have just returned from a nine day trip south of the border where they conducted a joint retreat with BSU students from the National University of Mexico.

"All my life I've thought all North Americans were little despots and dictators, until I met you all," one Mexican student, a second year law student, is reported to have commented as the local group boarded their bus for home.

Students of both groups were singing "God Be With You, Til We Meet Again" as the Texas students boarded the bus. Personal items such as sweaters and belts, were presented to the Americans as farewell mementos by their prayer partners.

"Our art students were especially interested in Diego Rivera's murals, which depict Mexican history," commented Dunn. The National Palace, which houses governmental offices, has magnificent murals decorating its walls. The artistically decorated Del Prado Hotel was visited by several students while others went to the art market, on the city square, where local Mexican artists erect their easels and paint for tourist trade.

"We were fascinated with the beauty of the University of Mexico," says Dunn. "The library building alone has about half a million separate mosaic tiles mounted to form a mural which covers the complete wall."

The National University has a student body of 80,000 and Polytechnic Institute, also located in Mexico City, has about 32,000 students according to Dunn.

"Mexican students who attend the University are above the average in drive, interest and intelligence," Dunn stated noting that the University is one of few such institutes which offers vocational and technical training.

Both, Dr. Bridges and Bob Franks, were speakers at the joint retreat held at the mountain resort, Tepozotlan, located about 60 miles south of Mexico City.

"The purpose of the retreat was to allow both groups the maximum amount of sharing what Christian life means in both countries," said Dunn. "Prayer partners, a Mexican student and an American, studied their Bibles together and they shared all camp facilities including the lunchroom and cabins."

The mission study retreat was staged at the National Y.M.C.A. camp in Mexico. With an altitude in excess of a mile, the camp site is located in a small country village where some residents still speak in the ancient Aztec language according to Dunn.

WT students noted that the village's peasant population was "poorly clothed and seldom wore shoes" said Dunn. The average daily wage is about 25 cents by American standards and the peasant diet consists mainly of tortillas and corn.

The camp cooks prepared the food without the traditional chili for the first two days. "Then," says Dunn, "the Mexican students requested that chili be included in the menu. A guacamole salad was prepared the next day, which the Mexican students ate readily."

"Our students sampled the salad—but I don't believe anyone ate over one or two bites," Dunn laughed.

A special morning watch was conducted daily at the creek bank. Speakers for the mission study retreat included, from Mexico, Rev. Porras, executive secretary for the national Baptist churches of Mexico; Senor Louis Torres, director of prison ministry; Dr. Julian Bridges and Bob Franks, BSU directors; and Walt Chambers, business manager and treasurer for the Mexican Baptist convention.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Low of Canyon and Bill Bowden, an attorney from Weatherford, gave special programs at the MEXICAN SOMBREROS, sarapes, and other mementoes from the recent BSU retreat in Mexico are being displayed by, left to right seated, James Dunn, BSU director, Rita Cartright, Anita Wimberley, and Jim Clifton. Standing is Don Baptist churches in the city. The 16 churches serve a membership of about 5 million persons according to Dunn.

The Folklorico Ballet was a highlight of the tourist attractions. The ballet was presented in the national Belles Artes Theatre. A portrayal of Mexican history from the pre-Aztec age to the present is the theme for the ballet which has performed on Broadway in New York and as a command performance at the White House.

"We were given the royal treatment at the Hotel Regis," Dunn stated. The students and sponsors were honored with a reception, featuring tropical papaya and other fruits, during their stay at the hotel.

A historic site, Chapultepec Castle and Park were toured by the students. The castle where Maximilian ruled now serves as a museum and it is a tradition for the Mexican people to visit the park and castle on Sunday afternoons according to Dunn.

While touring Chapultepec Park, the students visited the national zoo and botanical gardens. They also made tourist trips to the Latin American Tower, the highest in altitude, though not the tallest, office building of the western world; the National Cathedral, the oldest in the western hemisphere and possibly the richest and most ornate in the world; and the Pyramids, ruins from a by-gone era.

Dr. Julian Bridges, BSU director at the National University of Mexico, was a host for the retreat convention along with Bob Franks, student director at Polytechnic Institute.

Dr. Bridges is the first director for student work of the national Baptist churches in Mexico. Six BSU groups are located in the country, two in the capital city.

THE FFA EMBLEM

The national emblem of the Future Farmers of America is significant and meaningful in every detail. Used by members in all recognized units of the organization, it is made up of five symbols: the owl, the plow, and the rising sun, within the cross section of an ear of corn which is surmounted by the American eagle. Upon the face of the emblem appear also the words "Vocational Agriculture" and the letters "FFA." The owl is symbolic of wisdom and knowledge; the plow is the symbol of labor and tillage of the soil; the rising sun is emblematic of progress and the new day that will dawn when all farmers are trained and have learned to cooperate; the cross section of an ear of corn represents common agricultural interests since corn is native to America and grown in every State; and the eagle is indicative of the national scope of the organization. The emblem is protected by copyrights.

With "no time for siestas" the BSU group and sponsors left Mexico on the return trip to Texas. Sponsors accompanying the group were Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Low, Bob Byrd, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bowlen, and Mrs. A. M. Cunningham.

Good will ambassadors who went were Jan Alcorn, Deann Adrain, Don Akin, Linda Allison, Donita Allred, Morita Barnes, Charlotte Brewster, Patsy Campbell, Rita and Nita Cartright, Jim Clifton, Susan Davis, W. "We were well received while in Mexico," said Dunn commenting that The News, an English speaking paper, presented two different full page spreads with pictures and articles about the Texans and the joint BSU retreat. A number of Spanish speaking newspapers also presented various articles on the groups' activity.

During the first three days in the capital city of Mexico, the BSU group was entertained with the usual tourist attractions according to Dunn.

They saw the leading bullfighters of Mexico and Spain in the mano a mano competitions Saturday afternoon. The competition bullfight was presented before a sell-out crowd in the 20,000 seat ring. "Newspaper critiques rated the bulls as small and not mean enough," said Dunn. Critical opinions of bullfights are published similar to American critiques on operas and concerts.

Sunday morning the 20-voice BSU choir from WTSU sang for the First Baptist Church in Mexico City. They sang at the Emmanuel Baptist Church later that evening. Other BSU students attended services at several of the 16 national

Martha Toles In State Betty Crocker Cook Finals

Martha Toles, senior student at Happy High School, has been named one of the top ten finalists in the Betty Crocker Award contest in Texas.

Miss Toles was awarded the Betty Crocker Award for Happy at the annual Future Homemakers of America banquet, Saturday. Mrs. Lee Moore, FHA sponsor, also announced Miss Toles had been named one of the ten finalists in the state competition.

Results of the state contest will be released later in the spring.

Rickey Harman, senior at HHS, was crowned FHA Beau by Angela Airhart during the activities Saturday night in the school cafeteria.

Sam T. Bryan, superintendent of the Happy School System, was guest speaker at the banquet. Bryan gave five points on the contributions of teenagers to the family.

Bryan pointed out to those present at the banquet the necessity of teenagers shouldering responsibility in the family circle.

He also noted that teenagers are the masters of their own fate.

"You owe it to yourself to develop self discipline. You must use these years to learn self discipline," Bryan says.

"Your goal in life is determined by the 'set of your soul.' Your future depends on your determination," Bryan continued.

The superintendent urged young people to confide in adults when faced with a problem.

"People can help you if you will confide in them. A preacher, teacher, relative or someone with whom you can talk over the problem is always available. You feel better when you discuss a problem," Bryan pointed out.

He ended his talk by telling the high school students that parents and adults are proud of the teenagers of today.

"You as teenagers have been bombarded on every side. These attacks are sponsored by money-loving men who want to exploit the shortcomings of young people of today.

"You need to learn to love, play, work and worship. If you keep these in balance you can reach true happiness," he said.

Entertainment was provided by several singing groups. Marvin Caruthers played the guitar and sang two songs. A quartet consisting of Shelia LaDuke, Martha Toles, Jerry Don Danner and Marvin Caruthers, also sang.

Carroll Killingsworth, principal at Happy High School, was also on the part of the entertainment program.

Two Bands Set Concert For Sunday

Two Canyon bands will perform Sunday, Feb. 23, at 2:30 p.m. in the Canyon High School auditorium according to Lee Boyd Montgomery, band director.

Members of the Junior High School band will play six tunes as their part of the concert.

Included in the junior high program will be "Proudly We Play March", "The Redwood Forest Overture", Chorale I and Chorale II from "Three Modern Chorales", "Gypsy Love Song", "Courtly Festival", and "U.S.A."

The high school band will play "Aguero", "Chorale and Alleluia", "Green Leaves of Summer", "Slavonic Folk Suite", "Bolero For Band", "Second American Folk Rhapsody," and "Storm King March."

Tickets will be on sale at the door at $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Award on Martha Toles. Miss Toles was named as one of the top ten Betty Crocker Homemakers in Texas. Sam T. Bryan, superintendent of the school, was guest speaker at the banquet.

WT Testing Lab Helps Handicapped Tots

BY FRED TRIPP

In the world of Billy, the bright-eyed 3-year-old, something is wrong.

Just what it is, Billy can't tell you, because he can't talk. Deaf since birth, he has never learned the sounds of articulated speech, because he can't hear them. When he wants to "say" something, he can smile or cry, point a finger, tug at his mother's skirt, or make queer little noises.

Right now, Billy gets along pretty well—because his parents understand his stock of signals, his childish likes, dislikes and needs.

But what does the future hold for this lively, healthy, otherwise normal little boy?

Nothing less, indeed, than the magic of the spoken word, says Sherron (Bud) Stephens, audiologist, speech therapist and director of the Amarillo Regional Hearing and Speech Foundation, Inc.

"With ordinary luck and the cooperation of parents, Billy and his classmates here at the Children's Hearing Center stand a good chance of being able to take their places in any ordinary fourth grade classroom at the approximate age when they should be there," says Stephens.

This near-miracle is the result of a concerted effort by an Amarillo businessman, members of the Amarillo Junior League, West Texas State University, the State of Texas, and the devoted staff of the hearing center.

Five years ago, the outlook for a Panhandle tot with a serious and inoperable speech or hearing defect was bleak, costly, and emotionally upsetting for child and parents. Special schools and clinics were available, but not in this immediate area. Therapy thus often involved separation from home and family, and in many cases it was beyond modest financial means.

The alternative—postponement of remedial steps until the child reached school age—meant a loss of time during which the psychological effects of deafness became more firmly fixed, more difficult to cure.

Then came Lowell Munday, an Amarillo businessman, and members of his family became interested in the plight of deaf children of preschool age. They set up the Lowell Munday Foundation to begin and stimulate financial aid for a program for tots and parents in this region, and they made available the building at 902 Adams, Amarillo, where the Center is now housed.

With this contribution, the Regional Speech and Hearing Foundation was born.

Stephens, a personable young West Texas State University graduate with special training in speech and hearing therapy at the Clarke School for the Deaf at Northampton, Mass., arrived to direct the program and recruit additional staff members.

The Junior League of Amarillo pitched in with financial help and volunteer manpower, and the State of Texas made available some funds and equipment.

West Texas State University, with one of the finest audiologic laboratories in the Southwest, joined forces with the Center to become headquarters for clinical testing.

And memorial contributions and gifts began to arrive.

"In our first year of operation we had five preschool students, one teacher and one audiologist," says Stephens. "We offered only daytime classwork."

"Now we have 23 deaf or severely impaired children at the Center, plus evening classes in lip reading for adults and a complete program of speech therapy."

"At the Canyon laboratory last year we tested 165 adults and had an enrollment of 20 in our class for lip reading. We also ran brief hearing tests on every child in the Amarillo public schools."

"For our entire program, there is no charge except a fee for laboratory testing and for the reading courses for adults."

"Our estimated budget in 1963 was $41,000, and we actually spent $47,000."

Besides Stephens, the staff at the Center includes Miss Karen Deen, a graduate of the University of Illinois with special training in speech therapy; Miss Sylvia Harned, of Oklahoma College for Women and the Jane Brooks School for the Deaf at Chickasha, Okla.; Miss Lillian Anthony, of Oklahoma College for Women and also the Jane Brooks school; and Jimmy Holmes of Canyon, a volunteer speech therapist who is majoring in speech pathology at WTSU.

Backing the skills of staff members is approximately $18,000 worth of electronic equipment owned by the Center, plus some additional equipment made available by the state.

As outlined by Stephens, facilities of the Regional Speech and Hearing Foundation are available to all persons on referral by a physician, but special emphasis is put on reading the handicapped child of preschool age as soon as possible.

"Right now, we're handling a group of pre-three-year-olds—probably the youngest group in Texas under a program of education for the deaf," says Stephens. "The class is an experiment in what can be done with youngsters of this age, but we feel that by starting this way we make better over-all progress."

The present program takes the deaf or severely impaired child through the age of five, when he may attend a special public school class taught by Mrs. Opal Adams at the Wilson School in Amarillo.

This public school training is continued until about the third grade level, Stephens says, when the child is usually then ready to be integrated in classes for children with normal hearing.

Attending the Center now are youngsters from Amarillo, Canyon, Borger, Pampa, Wellington, Dimmitt and "all over the region."

For the tot who is deaf or whose hearing is critically impaired, training at the Children's Center begins with a referral from a qualified physician. Then comes the first big step.

"We try to teach the youngsters to consciously produce sounds," says Stephens. "Since, in many cases, he has never heard any kind of sound, we have first to make him aware of it. This is done by fitting him with a hearing aid. The aid won't restore hearing, but it will transmit sound vibrations so that the child becomes aware of this new thing."

The child is induced to utter sounds by watching the lips and facial expression of the teacher, and by placing his hands on her throat as she speaks. Pronunciation of words by the teacher is accompanied by illustration of the act or object, either directly or through use of pictures.

"The big job at this point is stimulating concentration," says Stephens. "At best, even the interest of a normal child flags after a while. Imagine the problem with a youngster who is being introduced to something that is radically foreign to all his experience."

As a result, the assistance of parents in the teaching program is imperative.

Once a week, Stephens meets with mothers in a training program to teach adults how to continue the teaching of the deaf child in the home.

"The important thing is to create in the deaf child's mind the realization that he must, positively must, try to speak," Stephens says. "This is done by a kind of gentle force, a constant assistance and encouragement that can't be allowed to lapse between the periods of formal training. Since we're trying to equip the child for a normal life, discipline is essential, and this must be operative in the home as well as in school."

"In my own experience, mothers are so interested in our program, so eager to learn to help, that usually they're a couple of jumps ahead of me."

Along with the elements of pronunciation, children at the Center are taught lip reading—described by Stephens as "an imperative for deaf persons of all ages."

"It's difficult, of course—but so also is teaching nearly every skill that a deaf child must acquire," Stephens says. "How, for example, would you go about teaching a deaf child the difference between 'man', the collective noun, and 'father', the specific parent of each child? Or how do you get across to the deaf child the idea of God? But we do, somehow..."

Just how well the Children's Center succeeds in its primary function may be gauged by any visitor who chances to overhear the prattle of 5 and 6-year-olds in the afternoon classes. Except for the inconspicuous hearing aid, these children neither appear nor act differently from normal children of their age group.

Stephens has high praise for facilities extended to the Regional Speech and Hearing Foundation by WTSU authorities.

"We have an agreement whereby the Foundation provides the services of an audiologist and the university makes available the space for a laboratory," he said.

"The Foundation owns most of the equipment and pays the salary of our secretary at Canyon, Miss Sarah Gentry."

"But the university has been more than cooperative—anything we want, WT makes every effort to provide. Without this assistance and cooperative spirit, the work of the Foundation would be severely handicapped."

Basic hearing tests at the WT lab require about 45 minutes to complete, Stephens said, and all hearing aid evaluations are done here. The tests give an accurate picture of how hearing has been lost, the sound frequencies at which loss is greatest, and the methods by which the patient's condition may be improved.
